I'm sure it will be a lively discussion and there will be posts from citizens at the web site. The program will be rebroadcast a 9 p.m. and you will be able to listen to a pod cast as well.

This is great news. I hope the coverage is positive and attracts some people to the Community Fair and other events. Thanks, Marcia, for asking Doug to mention it. I've fielded several calls from media wanting to cover the overall Riverfest schedule so I'm hoping the Community Fair will get some coverage there as well. Thanks to everyone who has been promoting!

Vicki

FYI. The Willamette River is the topic for tomorrow's "Think Out Loud" talk show from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on OPB radio. Doug Drake, the Willamette Basin coordinator for DEQ, will be one of the guests along with Travis Williams of the Willamette Riverkeeper and someone from the Portland Triathlon.

I asked Doug to mention the Portland Harbor booths at the community fair.
